

Overview of Coronavirus (COVID-19) Precaution Levels

Orange Level: High Risk Prevention

- Community prepares strategically
- Post infection control and visitor signage
- Discourage, limit, and restrict visitors as appropriate
- Implement daily Signs & Symptoms Screenings for all residents, employees and approved visitors
- Inventory and procure Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)
- Conduct reinforcement training for all employees
- Create a communication plan
- Conduct daily infection control & disinfecting rounds
- Implement employee travel guidelines
- Promote social distancing during dining and life enrichment

Blue Level: Local Area Alert

- No visitors, except for essential medical personnel or approved special circumstances
- No communal dining except for special circumstances (choking hazard or need other assistance)
- Offer alternative audio/video communication for residents & loved ones
- If Residents leave for other than an essential medical reason, they are not allowed reentry
- If Residents leave for an essential medical reason, they are subject to 14-day quarantine
 - In-Room dining only except for special circumstances (choking hazard or hands-on assistance)
 - Offer alternative audio/video communication for residents & loved ones
 - Restrict movement of limited number of persons entering resident apartments
 - All personnel follow "Guidance on PPE Usage and Conservation"
- New residents must meet screening criteria and stay rent-free (along with guest) for 14-day quarantine
- Conduct infection control & disinfecting rounds every shift
- Promote virtual tours and limit in-person tours
- Continue employee travel guidelines and implement PTO limitations

Red Level: Suspected and/or Confirmed COVID-19 Community Exposure

- No visitors, except for essential medical personnel or approved special circumstances
- All Residents are either quarantined (w/o COVID-19 signs & symptoms) or isolated (w/ sign & symptoms) to their apartments
 - In-room dining only except for special circumstances (choking hazard or hands-on assistance)
 - Offer alternative audio/video communication for residents & loved ones
 - Offer in-room life enrichment activities only
 - All personnel follow "Guidance on PPE Usage and Conservation"
 - Restrict movement of limited number of persons entering resident apartments
 - Implement alternative staffing plans and incentives, as appropriate
- Snack cart with beverages offered twice a day
- If Residents leave for other than an essential medical reason, they are not allowed reentry
- In-person tours and new residents are prohibited (except for approved special circumstances)
- Conduct infection control & disinfecting rounds every shift
- Continue employee travel guidelines and PTO limitations